Nose and Spoon Race

We are going to do something a little different this year.....

Whilst wearing whatever mad clothes you would like, we intend to challenge your children on the 18th March to a Nose and Spoon Race. We will be asking you to sponsor them to see just how long they can keep that nose on the spoon!

We will create a just giving page so that anyone can make a donation to the cause. Just some fabulous fun to try and raise money for comic relief.

Paperwork to follow next week.

Don't forget next week!

World Book Day on Thursday - don't forget your outfit!

Report by Ethan

On our trip to Duxford, we had lots of fun and the trip was very enjoyable. We saw planes and helicopters from the first and second world war.

In the first hanger, we explored planes during the first world war and we even got to enter a plane. After that we went to a hall to drop off our bags.

Then we were on our way to hangar 8, we saw a fire engine and they beeped to us and waved.

After entering hangar 8, we looked at the land vehicles used in WW2. My favourite was the soviet tank.

Finally we looked at the American bomber, had lunch and had a long, but fun ride home.

We experienced being reporters in the Battle of Britain Hanger - One was the cameraman, one the director and one the reporter!

King's Lynn Sea Cadets Open Day

Want to know what the Sea Cadets is all about?
Come and visit us on our open day and find out!

On Sunday 6th March we're opening our doors to the public, and we want to see you! If you're curious about what brilliant things you can do as part of the King's Lynn Sea Cadets, we're here to show you.

Pop down to TS Vancouver, St. Margaret's Lane and explore our unit! You'll meet our fantastic cadets and find out about the range of activities and awards you can achieve as a sea cadet.

Adults, we'd love to see you too! Sea Cadets isn't just for children. Our staff will be on hand to show you how worthwhile it can be to volunteer with us. If you want to do something that will make a difference, King's Lynn Sea Cadets wants you!

Visit us between 10am–3pm on Sunday 6th March and discover what it means to be part of the Sea Cadets.

Free tickets for under-18s

Royal Shakespeare Company at St George's Guildhall

SGT will be showing a 'live theatre on film' production of the Royal Shakespeare Company performing William Shakespeare's Comedy of Errors on Friday 11th March 2022 at 7.30pm at St George's Guildhall, King's Lynn.

As part of its ongoing education and awareness programme, SGT is offering free tickets for under-18s, and discounted tickets for accompanying adults.

Adult tickets are at the reduced price of £5 (normal price £9.50) and up to two free under 18 tickets may be provided with each adult ticket purchased.

These tickets are being offered exclusively through local schools and numbers are limited and on a first-come-first-served basis.

The production is suitable for year 5 upwards, and a synopsis is below.

Duration: 86 min | Rating: All Ages

One of Shakespeare's early comedies, The Comedy of Errors is a fast-paced farce exploring mistaken identities and relations lost and found. This production was captured by Digital Theatre live at the Clapham Community Project. It was devised specifically for schools and families by the Royal Shakespeare Company in association with critically acclaimed theatre company, Told by an Idiot. Directed by Paul Hunter, it features a cast made up from the RSC's ensemble and uses a pared down script, props, live music and physical comedy to convey the story.

For more details or to reserve your tickets, please contact:

Ivor Rowlands, Chair of Trustees, by phoning 07824 306404 or email info@shakespearesguildhalltrust.org.uk

Adult tickets will need to be paid in advance with details of names and ages of under-18s, and all tickets will then be available to collect on the night at the Guildhall theatre box office.
