Be Bright, Be Seen

It's getting dark quickly now that the clocks have changed, and Radio West Norfolk want to help make sure your children are as safe as can be.

Simon Rowe from Radio West Norfolk Breakfast is currently delivering over 5000 reflective stickers to schools in King's Lynn and the surrounding area.

Hopefully your child will wear this sticker on their coat, or perhaps stick it to their school bag so that they are a just a little bit more visible when walking home from school.

To learn more, or to listen to West Norfolk's local radio station, tune in on DAB by rescanning your radio if you haven't already, ask your Alexa to Launch Radio West Norfolk, download the app to your mobile phone or listen on line via www.radiowestnorfolk.co.uk and also on SKY TV via the Radio Player in the Apps section.

This has been made possible thanks East Coast Signs and Adrian Flux in King's Lynn.
