EYFS Church Visit

On Wednesday, Reception Class visited St Peter's Church in West Lynn as part of their knowledge lesson. They looked at all the features of the church including the beautiful stained glass windows.

Year 3 Stories of Lynn/Lynn Museum Trip

On Wednesday Year 3 visited the Lynn Museum and the Stories of Lynn museum, this is to support their learning this half term which is all about local history. The class learnt about Frederick Savage, a famous man of Lynn who invented (amongst other things) the 'merry go round'. They also learnt about the legend of John Smith and Pocahontas, King John and about the Hanseatic Trade agreements.

'Our trip was fun (and a bit scary) because in the Stories of Lynn there were scary sound effects. My favourite part was sitting together having lunch.' Amelia H

'It was great. I love Lynn and learning more about it. My favourite part was dressing up as a mayor.' Elsie
