Uniform Borrowed From School

If you have any spare uniform your child has borrowed from school, please could it be returned as we are running very low.

Polite Reminder

Please do not bring dogs onto the playground. If you do have to bring your dog with you, please wait at the main gate where possible. Thank you.

World Book Day

Thursday 5th March

To celebrate World Book Day, children can come to school dressed as character from a book!

To celebrate in school, we will be taking part in The Masked Reader where staff will be reading a book in a disguise. This will then be shown to the children and they have to guess which staff member it is!

We understand that some of these costumes can be expensive so please do have a look online for some fantastic budget friendly homemade costumes. It would be great for the children to get involved with making their own costumes too!
